

Addio

for tenor or soprano and piano

Alexey Shor

Quasi Tango Doloroso ♩=100

mf Ad - di - o, the

mp

mp 6 sun - set has come, There's no thing to say ex cept Ad di o, We

p 10 feel it, the night fall... This mo - ment we're spend - ing is tru - ly an end - ing, no

f p 14 use in pre - tend - ing at all. Ad - di - o, You must - n't fear, love, Look to the 18

fu - ture ___ with-out a tear, love, We al-ways knew this wind might soon be

21

blow - ing, And when it found me, ___ I would be go - ing. What can I say now? Ad-

25

di - o... Ad -

29

di - o, the sun light ___ is gone, There's noth-ing to say ___ ex-cept Ad-

33

di - o, The dark - ness, the moon rise... It's now or it's ne-ver, We can't last for-eve - er, It's time we say good - bye.

37

f

ff

41

Look to the fu - ture, — It's in your sight love, We al-ways knew the fate might soon de-

p

45

cieve us, With-out a war - ning the sun could leave us, — and we would say _____ Ad-

p mf

49 f mp

di - o, — The storm clouds have come. The voice in the dark re-peats: Ad - di - o, — We hear it, — the rain fall... It pours in the dis-tance with ma - nic per - sis - tence, No hope of re-sis-tance at all. Love, we see the skies are growing grey, What is there to say but Ad -

54 p

58 ff p

63 mp p (loco)

di - o, — it's ov - er, you're free, don't be sad, think of me. Ad - di - o... — optional 8va